Work to Defeat Them.

Seven hundred thousand republicans and democrats are in the army and cannot vote in consequence of this the peace convention have gained a few members of congress in the recent elections, and therefore the tory press are in exultation of joy. It is as much as to say, "Soldiers, you are in the army where you cannot help your friends at the polls; now we have the advantage of you and your friends, and we will elect a congress that will render us no avail, all for which you toil and shed your blood. We will compromise with the rebels, or permit them to divide the union and establish their confederacy." That a substantially the programme announced at a meeting of the tories in New York by John Van Buren and resolved with loud applause.

Every one, therefore, who has a relation or friend in the army is called upon to use his best efforts to defeat this party at the polls on the 4th of November. We know what they will do if they elect their candidates, because they have proclaimed their purpose in congress and out of it. Take care, then, that the right men are elected to congress and the state legislature; men who will use all the means that God has placed in our hands to defeat the rebels; men who are for the utmost vigor in the prosecution of the war, and who are bold enough to save the country although the rebels shall perish and the slaves be made free.

The Union Movement.

The Monitor thinks we are distressed above the "union" movement in this county, and attributes our alleged anxiety to a fear of the loss of the tax advertising, the cost of which it states at least three times as much as it really is. Our neighbor has, of course, no desire to reap the benefit of that advertising, for it has a standing puff of itself that it is not the "official organ" of either county or city, and therefore always speaks just what it thinks, and is fearless as a lion on every subject and every public interest, even to the detriment of its own interests. This "union" movement has received its sanction solely from a desire to benefit the people of this county. The movement was not arranged in the Monitor office nor the candidates paraded out there. Two straight, thoroughbred democrats have not been nominated for treasurer and clerk of the board, who have the control of the tax advertising. The contempt and opposition of the county delegates at the weakness of the republican branch of the "union" was not overcome by the city leaders, and the ticket "legged" through by the special friends and co-workers with the Monitor. Oh, no! the whole thing was entirely disinterested, purely patriotic, and wholly devoid of political intrigue or political interguers!

By the way, why don't the Monitor publish the proceedings of those two loving and lovable conventions? So independent and fearless a champion of the people's interests ought to be willing to submit at least in public record to a public inspection.—Why are the proceedings of both conventions "hived"? Is the party ashamed of its acts and its actors? And why should its patriotic allies be kept in the shade? More than all, why is the declaration of Messrs. Yost and Peck kept from the knowledge of its readers? Come, thou immaculate, self-sacrificing, open-hearted and open-handed "Monitor," don't leave yourself in a position where anybody can even suspect you of a selfish motive or a partisan object.

We can understand why no allusion is made to the great "mass union congress-

What the Peace Democrats Propose.

John Van Buren made a speech at the great Seymour democratic meeting in New York, in which he said:

"The capture of Richmond is the natural resting place of the war, and after that is the time to treat of peace, and determine what will be done. I believe a convention should be called. I believe our southern brethren ought to be invited to such a convention. I believe that when Richmond is taken they will be satisfied of their inability to contest with the gigantic resources of the loyal states. I will not believe that they will consent to see this great model republic, starting only in its career, challenging the admiration of the world, and being the hope and light of freedom throughout the world, strangled in its infancy. I believe that under those circumstances they would come to a convention, that we could agree to live together under the constitution as it is, or more distinctly defining what it is. And if they won't, then I know that I am in favor of amending the constitution as to let them go, saying to them, in the language of the gallant Scott: 'Wayward sisters, depart in peace!'"

[This, then, in what our armies, east and west, are fighting for: the capture of Richmond, and the calling of a convention to yield to all the demands of Jeff. Davis; if our "southern brethren" are not satisfied with this, and will not live with us, notwithstanding our abject humiliation before them, then the Union is to be dissolved by a convention which surrenders everything before it assembles. These eastern democrats seem to ignore the west entirely. It is of no consequence to them what is done in the west. The whole war, in their opinion, is centered upon the Potomac and about Richmond, and peace is to be settled there upon such terms as the east and south may agree upon. In case they fail to come to terms, then the proposition is to let the south go in peace. The Mississippi valley will have a word to say about this. The south cannot dissolve the Union in peace, nor dictate terms of settlement. The great northwest has furnished more than one-half of all the men for this war, and they are determined that this Union shall never be dissolved. The great highway of our magnificent valley will belong to one nation, and no schemes at Richmond or in New York can prevent it. The outlet to the ocean by the great father of rivers belongs to those who dwell upon its banks, and they mean that it shall be free, and that free men shall alone make its laws, cultivate its soil and control its destiny.

Colonel Bragg Denounced.

The tory News thus denounces the brave Col. Bragg because he accepts a nomination of the people for congress:

Enlisted in the service of the Union, he is giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the Union at home. As a political candidate he deserves only execration from the democracy he has wronged. He will get no support from the democrats anywhere. If he has supposed that democrats would vote for non-committal nominees of abolition conventions, he has been deceived by pretended friends. We exhort the lion-hearted democracy of the fourth to rebuke him, by rolling up a majority for Eldridge that shall prove an example to men who would hereafter betray the constitution and the government in Wisconsin.

It is not infamous that the chivalric soldier who is braving the dangers of the field against the foes of his country, should be so set upon by a set of political gamblers who think more of their party than of the country? The people of that district certainly cannot be so far fallen from all noble instincts as to exonerate the soldier who is perilling his life in their defense, at the command of the Milwaukee News. Such language as is used towards Col. Bragg might well be employed by a rebel newspaper in the interest of Jeff. Davis, but surely no loyal sheet can so denounce him and continue to wield any influence over true and loyal men.

The Milwaukee News, referring to the declaration of Col. Bragg that he intends to "sustain the government," becomes oracular and declares that:

"If a candidate has no more exclusive claim for the popular support than this, he had better leave the field to men who not only sustain the government, but who intend to lead the people how they intend to support the government when they get to congress." When a man conceals his real opinions by a glittering generality of this sort, it is fair to presume that he holds opinions which he thinks it impolitic to confess.

We wish the News would try its hand on some of its own pet candidates, among them Col. Guppy, and ascertain "how they intend to support the government." Do he and they mean to sustain the government by sustaining the measures of the government, the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the confiscation act and the emancipation proclamation included? Or are they "concealing their real opinions by a glittering generality," and holding sentiments and purposes "which they think it impolitic to confess"? If the News will draw out James S. Brown, Ezra Wheeler and Col. Guppy on those points, it will do the people of this state more real service than it has ever yet rendered them. C. A. Eldredge and P. B. Simpson it may let alone, as they are openly and undisguisedly on the Ryan platform.

ARREST OF COL. LARRABEE.—It is said that Col. Larrabee, with five other colonels, was put under arrest, before the late battles in Kentucky, for taking along a wagon, in which to carry the knapsacks of the fabled men in their rapid march toward the scene of conflict. All such arrests do honor to the arrested officers. In this case, the act of some subordinate tyrant was rebuked by the commanding officer, who restored the arrested parties to their positions.

"The country will regret the defeat of Vallandigham."—Met. News.

Change the word "country" to "the rebels" and the truth will be succinctly told. The News, as an expoliator and supporter of the rebellion, is well entitled to speak for the traitors and nobody else.

The Milwaukee News says that the recent elections express the "voice of the people." It means the voice of the people who do not volunteer for the war.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Omaha Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

Cairo, October 16. Special to Chicago Journal.—Capt. H. A. Argon, 6th Illinois cavalry, just from Illinois, gives several interesting facts. A force of Texan Rangers is hovering about the camps. When a body of soldiers go out they retreat to the swamps. When the federals return, they dash in their rear and cut off stragglers. These skirmishes are of almost daily occurrence. Last Saturday a battalion of the 2d Wisconsin cavalry went out on the St. Francis road as far as Lagrange, 15 miles from Salem. They were attacked by the 27th Texas rangers, and driven back 10 miles, when the 1st Missouri came to their assistance, twelve of the rebels were captured, Lieut. Col. Giddings and 10 men.

The health of the troops at Helena is improving. The rebels are still at work up the Ohio. They captured a fifteen negroes yesterday from the Columbia white-wooding five miles above Smithland. The negroes were tied together and driven off. The rebels camped on Tuesday night four miles from Caseyville. Col. Whitney's regiment came down from Shawneetown and started in pursuit yesterday morning.

The mail taken from the Hail Dell has been recovered. The steamer Exchange, with 600 infantry and two guns, arrived at Caseyville Tuesday, and is now in pursuit.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—Edward Everett will probably be nominated for congress by the union republicans of Rice's (Boston) district. Rice declines. It is understood that he stands on a thorough war platform, and in favor of the proclamation. Senator Pomeroy has returned from Kansas. He says he finds the Chiriqui expedition in the same condition as when he left, and sees no reason why it should not be prevented. The rebels occasionally run trains to Bristol, whence freight is taken to Lees through Thoroughgap Gap by wagons.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.

Special to Chicago Evening Journal.—The 75th Illinois regiment, Col. Ryan, which left the camp at Dixon, Ill., only about three weeks ago, lost 80 men killed and 190 in wounded at the recent battle at Ferryville. Major Kilgore is mortally wounded. Capt. Roberts and Whelan are severely, Capt. Frost and Blodgett slightly. Lieut. Sells and Blaney were killed, and Lieut. Irwin mortally wounded.

Our wounded in the hospital are suffering for the want of those sanitary comforts and of that nursing attendance which could so readily be sent them by their friends at home. Your aid at home people owe it to the cause of humanity as well as patriotism to see to it that the sick and wounded Union soldiers in the hospitals are not left to suffer and die for want of supplies and good nursing.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

A dispatch from Harper's Ferry states that an advance has been made. HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Oct. 16. An important reconnaissance was made to-day in the direction of Winchester. Hancock's division left this morning on the road to Charlestown. Three miles from Bolivar they came upon the enemy's pickets, who retired within half a mile of Charlestown and formed in line of battle. They covered the approach to Charlestown with artillery. A battery was soon brought into position, and an artillery engagement ensued which lasted two hours, when the rebels retreated to Mill's, beyond the town. We lost one killed and eight wounded. The rebel Capt. Smith of the Richmond artillery, and eight men, were captured. Hancock's troops entered Charlestown at 12 o'clock at night, the enemy leaving 100 wounded behind. At 4 o'clock we advanced and drove the enemy from Mill's and at dark occupied the position two miles behind the town. The rebel army occupies a position extending from Bunker Hill to the Shenandoah. Gen. McClellan arrived at Charlestown at 2 o'clock, remaining during the night.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16.

The democratic majority on the state ticket will be from 5,000 to 6,000. The democrats elect five congressmen, union three, and three doubtful. Vanderburgh county official democratic majority on state ticket, 384.

Law, democrat, for congress in the 1st district has 445 majority. Shelby county, official, 720 democratic majority. Posey county, democratic majority from 50 to 100.

DENVER, Oct. 16.

The interior counties in northern Iowa have done nobly for the Union cause. Col. Allison (union) for congress has beaten Mahoney, (tory) in the 3d district, by about 4,000 majority, with the soldiers' vote.

SAG HARBOR, L. I., Oct. 16.

A sad accident occurred here to day, during a trial of the James' projectile, in the presence of some French and Russian officers of artillery, and a considerable number of citizens. Owing to accident or carelessness, a shell exploded, killing Henry Brevint, of the village, and severely wounding C. T. James, S. R. Bryan, Capt. James Smith, and C. Berger, a French officer. Several others were also more or less wounded.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.

Innumerable unauthenticated reports are afloat this evening. Among them, that Humphrey Marshall with his whole force is retreating toward Irvine, Estell county, with Brig. Gen. H. J. Smith after him. Quite a number of rebels without arms arrived at Richmond last night, reporting that their forces had been thoroughly whipped. They say that Kirby Smith's force, on the morning of the 10th, was drawn up in line of battle at Big Hill, eighteen miles southeast of Richmond. At Lexington heavy firing was heard all day, indicating the retreat of the rebels, and sharp pursuit by our forces. Rumors at Lexington are afloat that a detachment of our men had separated John Morgan's band into two bands, which were trying to concentrate and retreat in the direction of Gallatin. Grinstead's command is said to have captured 500 beavers and 700 wagons, on Tuesday, from the rebels. Buell's main army passed through Clark Orchard at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and if unimpeded by skirmishers, must be near Rock Castle.

Gen. Bragg's force is supposed to be near London. Headquarters, so far as advised, think Buell is pressing the enemy's rear sharply, and that the foregoing reports relate to skirmishes along the enemy's rear. Buell will force them to a fight or capture their whole army.

Thomas D. Caw, sheriff of Fayette Co., brings a report to Lexington of a heavy fight yesterday, from 6 a. m. till 11 p. m., between Lexington and Richmond, in which the rebels were utterly routed, they throwing away their arms and accoutrements by thousands. We captured 1,600 head of cattle, a large quantity of arms, and quite a number of prisoners.

The Milwaukee News says that the recent elections express the "voice of the people." It means the voice of the people who do not volunteer for the war.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

New York, Oct. 17. The steamer Potomac, from New Orleans, reports the Kankakee arrived. Our gunboats had captured 1500 head of cattle near Donaldsonville, and were conveying transports with them down the river when the rebel battery opened on them. The gunboats drove the rebels away, but not until 1st Lt. Swasey, of the Scioto, was killed, and several wounded. The Potomac bro't $125,000 in specie.

Underwriters have advanced war risks for vessels sailing in the track of the Alabama to five per cent.

The steam frigate Ticonderoga was launched yesterday afternoon.

A convention of railroad men yesterday adopted the following time table, to take effect Nov. 17th: Through trains leave New York for the west at 7 a. m. and 5 p. m.; leave Cincinnati for the east at 8.30 a. m. and 10.30 p. m.

FRANKFORT, Oct. 16th, (Midnight.)

Herold's dispatch—Later advice from opposite Shepardsdown, report that the reconnoitering party under Gen. Humphreys, which crossed the Potomac this morning, were met near Shepardsdown by a rebel force, which opened on them an artillery fire. Our forces had no artillery with them and they retired across the river, having entirely accomplished the object of the reconnoissance, and ascertained that the rebels were still in some force at this point.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

Special to Times—Gen. Fremont expects soon to be in Washington, preliminary to his assignment to an important command in the southwest.

The statement published nearly a week since that Gen. Morgan had been suspended from his command on account of his retreat from Cumberland Gap, is believed by the secretary of war to be untrue, as nothing of the kind is known at the department.

CHARLESTON, Va., Oct. 16—8 p. m.

Lee is at Winchester, with a large force, and Jackson at Bunker Hill with another large force. Stuart's cavalry is at the Shenandoah. A large rebel force is at Leesetown, six miles away. Our forces are deployed out—Caldwell's brigade on the right front, the 6th New Hampshire on the left, the 6th regular cavalry on the extreme front of the village, and cavalry, infantry and artillery scattered through the village. The 6th New York cavalry are two miles in the rear to prevent a flank movement. The enemy is expected to be reinforced.

We learn from the people that Jeff. Davis has issued a proclamation that all Union officers held and captured shall be put to hard labor, if the Lincoln proclamation is carried out. There is a furious storm raging.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.

We have dispatches from the Times' special correspondent in front of Washington, dated Centerville and Green Springs. The rebel Gen. Stuart was certainly at Leesetown on Monday, our correspondent having been within sight of his camp fires. He attempted to cut off Capt. Ayres' detachment, but was foiled by information given by a negro, who had heard his master detail the rebel plan of operations. There is no doubt that Stuart is now in front of our advanced guard and threatening an attack. Gen. Sigel has advanced to meet him, and our correspondent is confident that Stuart will be compelled to fight or run. Stuart is camped yesterday between Bull Run Mountain and the Blue Ridge, and our pickets were driven in last night from the direction of Leesetown.

Lieut. Keonig returned on Tuesday evening from a reconnoissance, and reports a force of 400 rebel cavalry at Bristow's Station, and that the rebels are running trains between Warrenton and Wentworth Junction. A small rebel force appeared yesterday on the stone bridge at the Bull Run battle ground.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.

Ohio plebiscite returns from 31 counties give a democratic majority of 17,500; a democratic gain of over 25,000.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

OMAHA, Oct. 16.

Hon. S. G. Daley, republican, re-elected delegate to congress by an increased majority.

DES MOINES, Oct. 16.

The following counties are heard from: Warren county, 175 republican majority; Polk, 500 state ticket, Kasron for congress 90; Madison county, 40 democratic; Clark county, 100 republican; Jasper county, 300 without vote of soldiers, which it is supposed will increase it to 1000 republican majority.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.

Special to New York Herald.—Official dispatches were received here from Nashville, to-day. The rebels were in large force near that city. On the 11th they sent a flag of truce demanding the surrender of the town, Gen. Negley declined. The federal force was ample for the defense. Gov. Harris, Major General Anderson and Brigadier General Forest are in command of the rebels.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

The French steam frigate Nassau, now at this port, brings advice from Mexico to the 26th ult. Gen. Forey arrived at Vera Cruz on the 22d. It is understood that in addition to his military command, the general is entrusted with diplomatic command superior to Sulgney, who is suspected for being too much mixed in Mexican politics. No fighting had taken place, with the exception of a few guerrilla skirmishes.

A serious resistance having been made to the enrollment for the draft among the Irish residents of Luzerne county, Pennsylvania, it was necessary, on Wednesday, to call out a militia force in the town of Bakalet, and fire upon the insurgents, four or five of whom were killed, and a forcible opposition put down.

Gen. Michael Corcoran has a card this morning, declining to be a candidate for congress. Gen. Corcoran will accept no office till the rebellion is put down. There was, yesterday, in Brooklyn a narrow escape from a terrible calamity. School house No. 20, South 4th street, Williamsburg, took fire from the heating apparatus. Great confusion prevailed. The children made a simultaneous and frantic attempt to escape from the apartment. Numbers rushed to the windows for the purpose of jumping out, which one or two actually did. The teachers directed their efforts to getting the children out, and succeeded. Nearly all escaped uninjured, but in the desperate attempt to get out, a number were trampled on and crushed, and more or less hurt. One boy, it is feared, will not recover. The fire was soon extinguished by the police and firemen, who also rendered active service in removing the children.

SAG HARBOR, Oct. 17.

Gen. C. T. James, the inventor of a heavy fight yesterday, from 6 a. m. till 11 p. m., between Lexington and Richmond, in which the rebels were utterly routed, they throwing away their arms and accoutrements by thousands. We captured 1,600 head of cattle, a large quantity of arms, and quite a number of prisoners.

New York, Oct. 17. Flour fair demand, 4.00 to 5.00 per western; 6.00 to 7.00 common to medium extra western. Wheat unsettled with holders disposed to realize, 1.25 to 1.26 Chicago spring; 1.25 to 1.26 Milwaukee spring; 1.30 to 1.35 Iowa. Corn 65 to 68 mixed western. Gold down to 1.32.

We find in the Beloit Journal the following questions addressed to the democratic candidate for senator in this county. The voters of the county, whose suffrages Mr. Waterman and the convention which nominated him solicited, would like an early and explicit answer:

BELOIT, Oct. 15, 1862.

S. S. Waterman, Esq.—I am informed by gentlemen who attended the democratic and union conventions held in Janosville yesterday, that you were nominated by those conventions as a candidate for state senator to represent this county for the next two years. Your political opinions previous to the breaking out of the rebellion are matters of little moment, but your position at this time is one of vital importance.

The gentlemen composing the conventions which have placed you in nomination represent, as I understand, opinions wholly at variance with each other in relation to the present struggle to perpetuate and maintain our existence as a nation, and neither of those conventions have by resolution, address or otherwise, indicated any principles to which their nominees are pledged. I think it right that every voter within the county should be advised fully and freely as to the principles by which you would be governed should you be elected. Without further preface let me ask—

1. Are you in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war by the use of all the means under the control of the government not inconsistent with the rules of civilized warfare until the rebellion is suppressed and the supremacy of the government asserted and maintained throughout all the states and territories now in rebellion?

2. Are you in favor of the emancipation of the slaves of the rebels, in case the same is necessary in order to suppress the rebellion?

3. In order to terminate the present war would you be in favor of giving further guarantees to slave property by amendment to the constitution of the United States?

4. Do you approve or disapprove of the principles set forth in the address issued by the Democratic convention recently held in the city of Milwaukee?

5. Do you approve or disapprove of the late order or message of the President of the United States in relation to the emancipation of slaves in the states and territories now in rebellion on and after the first day of January next? Yours very truly,

Letter from Gen. Bragg, candidate for Congress—He Defines his Position.

We have received the following letter from Col. Bragg, in response to a communication acquainting him with the action of the republican congressional convention:

HEADQUARTERS SIXTH REGIMENT WIS. VOL., New Shepardsdown, Oct. 16, 1862.

J. H. BRANTZHOFF, Sec'y.—Sir:—This day's mail brings me the first intelligence that my name has been presented by my friends, and approved by your convention, as a candidate for congress in the 4th congressional district, on the platform that the government must be sustained.

The proceedings of the convention of which you were secretary show an earnest desire to merge all past differences in attaining the great end—the perpetuity of the government of our fathers.

How wisely you trusted your lance to my hands the future must determine. I would have kept aloof from the specialties almost always engaged in a contest for congress, but "to fight and be fought" are fast becoming daily occurrences in these perilous times of ours, and I have nearly educated myself to shrink from no responsibility in that direction.

I can take no part in the coming canvass—my duties are elsewhere, and I shall endeavor to discharge them to my own credit and to the honor of the state whose commission I bear. To the electors at home I leave the task of sustaining me, if my views and actions meet their approbation.

If elected, and my life is spared to enter upon the duties of my office, I shall give my best energies and blood to the interests of my district and the government, which is now in fearful jeopardy.

It has been a matter of solicitude among my friends to know what my views upon the great issues of the day are. I recognize but one issue, "For or against the government." This swallows up all others—and the motto that "he who is not for me is against me," never had more truthful significance than it has to day.

Every controversy among ourselves, every withdrawal of confidence from the government, covertly or openly, encourages and gives "aid and comfort to the enemy." I am for the government—the iron game, and not the silk gloves, for the enemy.

Thanking the body which you have the honor to represent for its unsolicited address, I have the honor to be very Respectfully your old serv't,

EDWARD S. BRAGO.

Return of Released Western Union Prisoners from the South.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15. About two hundred officers are here to-day from the south, the most of whom were westerners, and were captured at Shiloh. They belong mainly to the 8th, 12th, 2d and 11th Iowa regiments. They reached here in a ragged and dirty condition, but generally in good health. There have been a good many deaths among them from fevers and other causes. Several have been killed by the rebel guard. Among the latter was Lieut. Bliss, of 2d Michigan battery, who was shot by a sentry in pursuit, and without the slightest provocation.

Gen. Prentiss states that their treatment latterly in Georgia was extremely brutal. One hundred and fifty were confined in a close, small room, and their food was thrown in among them as if they had been so many hogs. While at Atlanta seven men were executed close to the prison of the national officers. At Tusculoo one of our men was shot in the head while looking out of a window, and fell into the street a corpse.

Capt. Lawler, of the 12th Illinois, was placed in close confinement for two weeks, on bread and water, for simply answering a question addressed to him by one of his own men. The guards were ordered to shoot down any officer who might be seen speaking to one of his men.

One soldier died from absolute starvation while going from Tusculoo to Montgomery, and others only barely kept alive by eating the crumbs thrown on the lower deck from the cabin table. A great many died from sheer neglect. When appeals were made for medicine or attendance for the sick, the reply generally was that to neglect Yankees was the best way to get rid of them.

One of the guards at Madison had a purse and razor stolen, which he ostentatiously displayed as being from the skin of a Yankee. Another had a spur made from a federal jawbone, and another a cane in which had been inserted Yankee teeth.

The whole number will be paid off to-morrow, and will then leave for their respective homes. All of them express much indignation that they have not been exchanged before.

The returned prisoners state the fortifications about Richmond are of the most extensive and formidable character, and perfectly impregnable to assault.

corat till the war broke out, made a speech at Columbus on Monday evening, in which he said of the president's proclamation: "I heartily endorse every word of it. It was well-timed for Ohio. The border was threatened. I prefer to have rebel fire-aides threatened than to have ours invaded. So long as slaves are allowed to remain at home, so long will rebellion last. Do you question his wisdom? Was not ninety days long enough for the rebel master to make up his mind to lay down his arms or lose his slaves? The blood of Ohio has been shed like water. It must be atoned for in the death of the leaders of this rebellion."

RECRUITING COL. LYON.—We see posters up stating that 200 men are wanted to fill up the 13th regiment, Col. Lyon, now stationed at Fort Henry, Tennessee. No better regiment or colonel is in the field, and our boys who think of enlisting had better take up with the chance before drafting begins, and claim their $25 bounty in advance, $4 premium, as well as the bounties offered to volunteers by the county, all of which will be lost to drafted men.—Rock County Advertiser.

Work to Do.

Seven hundred thousand republicans and democrats are in the army and cannot vote. In consequence of this the peace democrats have gained a few members of congress in the recent elections, and therefore the tory presses are in ecstasies of joy. It is as much as to say, "Soldiers, you are in the army where you cannot help your friends at the polls; now we have the advantage of you and your friends, and we will elect a congress that will render of no avail, all for which you toil and shed your blood. We will compromise with the rebels, or permit them to divide the union and establish their confederacy." That a substantially the programme announced at a meeting of the tories in New York by John Van Buren and received with loud applause.

Every one, therefore, who has a relation or friend in the army is called upon to use his best efforts to defeat this party at the polls on the 4th of November. We know what they will do if they elect their candidates, because they have proclaimed their purpose in congress and out of it. Take care, then, that the right men are elected to congress and the state legislature; men who will use all the means that God has placed in our hands to defeat the rebels; men who are for the utmost vigor in the prosecution of the war, and who are bold enough to save the country although the rebels shall perish and the slaves be made free.

The Union Movement.

The Monitor thinks we are distressed above the "union" movement in this country, and attributes our alleged anxiety to a fear of the loss of the tax advertising, the cost of which it states at least three times as much as it really is. Our neighbor has, of course, no desire to reap the benefit of that advertising, for it has a standing puff of itself that it is not the "official organ" of either county or city, and therefore always appeals just what it thinks, and is fearless as a lion on every subject and every public interest, even to the detriment of its own interests. This "union" movement has received its sanction solely from a desire to benefit the people of this country. The movement was not arranged in the Monitor office nor the candidates paraded out there. No straight, thoroughbred democrats have not been nominated for treasurer and clerk of the board, who have the control of the tax advertising. The contempt and opposition of the country delegates at the weakness of the republican branch of the "union" was not overcome by the city leaders, and the ticket "fagled" through by the special friends and co-workers with the Monitor. Oh, no! the whole thing was entirely disinterested, purely patriotic, and wholly devoid of political intrigue or political intrigues!

By the way, why don't the Monitor publish the proceedings of those two loving and lovable conventions? So independent and fearless a champion of the people's interests ought to be willing to submit at least its public record to a public inspection. Why are the proceedings of both conventions "hived"? Is the party ashamed of its acts and its officers? And why should its patriotic allies be kept in the shade? More than all, why is the declaration of Messrs. Yost and Peck kept from the knowledge of its readers? Come, then! immaculate, self-sacrificing, open-hearted and open-handed "Monitor," don't leave yourself in a position where anybody can even suspect you of a selfish motive or a partisan object. We can understand why no allusion is made to the great "mass union congressional" convention in Madison for the benefit of Col. Guppy, for that was so far away from home it had no particular interest in Rock county; but why overlook such home matters as two county conventions?

What the Peace Democrats Propose.

"The capture of Richmond is the natural resting place of the war, and after that is the time to treat of peace, and determine what will be done. I believe a convention should be called. I believe our southern brethren ought to be invited to such a convention. I believe that when Richmond is taken they will be satisfied of their inability to contest with the gigantic resources of the loyal states. I will not believe that they will consent to see this great model republic, starting only in its career, challenging the admiration of the world, and being the hope and light of freedom throughout the world, strangled in its infancy. I believe that under those circumstances they would come to a convention, that we could agree to live together under the constitution as it is, or more distinctly, defining what it is, and if they won't, then I know that I am in favor of amending the constitution as to let them go, saying to them, in the language of the gallant Scott: 'Wayward sisters, depart in peace!'" [Applause.]

This, then, is what our armies, east and west, are fighting for: the capture of Richmond, and the calling of a convention to yield to all the demands of Jeff. Davis; if our "southern brethren" are not satisfied with this, and will not live with us, notwithstanding our object humiliation before them, then the Union is to be dissolved by a convention which surrenders everything before it assembles. These eastern democrats seem to ignore the west entirely. It is of no consequence to them what is done in the west. The whole war, in their opinion, is centered upon the Potomac and about Richmond, and peace is to be settled there upon such terms as the east and south may agree upon. In case they fail to come to terms, then the proposition is to let the south go in peace. The Mississippi valley will have a word to say about this. The south cannot dissolve the Union in peace, nor dictate terms of settlement. The great northwest has furnished more than one-half of all the men for this war, and they are determined that this Union shall never be dissolved. The great highway of our magnificent valley will belong to one nation, and no schemes at Richmond or in New York can prevent it. The outlet to the ocean by the great father of rivers belongs to those who dwell upon its banks, and they mean that it shall be free, and that free men shall alone make its laws, cultivate its soil and control its destiny.

Colonel Bragg Denounced.

The tory News thus denounces the brave Col. Bragg because he accepts a nomination of the people for congress:

Enlisted in the service of the Union, he is giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the Union at home. As a political candidate he deserves only execration from the democracy he has wronged. He will get no support from the democrats anywhere. If he has supposed that democrats would vote for un-committal nominees of abolition conventions, he has been deceived by pretended friends. We exhort the lion-hearted democracy of the fourth to rebuke him, by rolling up a majority for Eldridge that shall prove an example to men who would hereafter betray the constitution and the government in Wisconsin.

Is it not infamous that the chivalric soldier who is braving the dangers of the field against the foes of his country, should be so set upon by a set of political gamblers, who think more of their party than of the country? The people of that district certainly cannot be so far fallen from all noble instincts as to exonerate the soldier who is perilling his life in their defense, at the command of the Milwaukee News. Such language as is used towards Col. Bragg might well be employed by a rebel newspaper in the interest of Jeff Davis, but surely no loyal sheet can so denounce him and continue to wield any influence over true and loyal men.

The Milwaukee News, referring to the declaration of Col. Bragg that he intends to "sustain the government," becomes sarcastic and declares that:

"If a candidate has no more exclusive claim for the popular support than this, he had better leave the field to men who not only sustain the government, but who dare tell the people how they intend to support the government when they get to congress." * * * When a man conceals his real opinions by a glittering generality of this sort, it is fair to presume that he holds opinions which he thinks it impolitic to confess."

We wish the News would try its hand on some of its own pet candidates, among them Col. Guppy, and ascertain "how true" it intends to support the government." Do he and they mean to sustain the government by sustaining the measures of the government, the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus, the confiscation act and the emancipation proclamation included? Or are they concealing their real opinions by "glittering generalities," and holding sentiments and purposes "which they think it impolitic to confess"? If the News will draw out James S. Brown, Ezra Wheeler and Col. Guppy on those points, it will do the people of this state more real service than it has ever rendered them. C. A. Eldridge and P. B. Simpson it may let alone, as they are openly and undisputedly on the Ryan platform.

ARREST OF COL. LARRABEE.—It is said that Col. Larrabee, with five other colonels, was put under arrest, before the late battles in Kentucky, for taking along a wagon, in which to carry the knapsacks of the jaded men in their rapid march toward the scene of conflict. All such arrests do honor to the arrested officers. In this case, the act of some subordinate tyrant was rebuked by the commanding officer, who restored the arrested parties to their positions.

"The country will regret the defeat of Vallandigham."—Mt. News.
Change the word "country" to "the rebels" and the truth will be succinctly told. The News, as an apologist and supporter of the rebellion, is well entitled to speak for the traitors and nobody else.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,

Last Night's Report.

CATRO, October 16.
Special to Chicago Journal.—Capt. H. A. Langan, 6th Illinois cavalry, just from Helena, gives several interesting facts. A force of Texan Rangers is hovering about the camps. When a body of federals go out they retreat to the swamps. When the federals return, they dash in their rear and cut off stragglers. These skirmishes are of almost daily occurrence.

Last Saturday a battalion of the 24 Wisconsin cavalry went out on the St. Francis road as far as Lagrange, 15 miles from Helena. They were attacked by the 27th Texas rangers, and driven back 10 miles, when the 1st Missouri came to their assistance. Twelve of the rebels were captured, Lieut. Col. Giddings and 10 men.

The health of the troops at Helena is improving. The rebels are still at work up the Ohio. They captured fifteen negroes yesterday from the Cordelia while wading five miles above Smithland. The negroes were tied together and driven off. The rebels camped on Tuesday night five miles from Caseyville. Col. Whitney's regiment came down from Shawneetown and started in pursuit yesterday morning.

The mail taken from the Hazel Dell has been recovered. The steamer Exchange, with 600 infantry and two guns, arrived at Caseyville Tuesday, and is now in pursuit.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.
Special to Chicago Tribune.—Edward Everett will probably be nominated for congress by the union republicans of Rice's (Boston) district. Rice declines. It is understood that the union republicans are in the majority in favor of the proclamation.

Senator Pomeroy has returned from Kansas. He says he finds the Chiriqui expedition in the same condition as when he left, and sees no reason why it should not be prosecuted. The rebels occasionally run trains to Bristol, whence freight is taken to Lee through Thoroughfare Gap by wagon.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.
Special to Chicago Evening Journal.—The 75th Illinois regiment, Col. Ryan, which left the camp at Dixon, Ill., only about three weeks ago, lost 80 men killed and 190 in wounded at the recent battle at Perryville. Major Kilgore is mortally wounded; Capt. Roberts and Whalen severely; Capt. Frost and Blodgett slightly. Lieuts. Selis and Blaney were killed, and Lieut. Irwin mortally wounded.

Our wounded in the hospital are suffering for the want of those sanitary comforts and of that nursing attendance which could so readily be sent them by their friends at home. Your aid at home goes to the cause of humanity as well as patriotism. See to it that the sick and wounded Union soldiers in the hospitals are not left to suffer and die for want of supplies and good nursing.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.
A dispatch from Harper's Ferry states that an advance has been made.

An important reconnaissance was made today in the direction of Winchester. Hancock's division left this morning on the road to Charlestown. Three miles from Bolivar they came upon the enemy's pickets, who retired within half a mile of Charlestown and formed in line of battle. They covered the approach to Charlestown with artillery. A battery was soon brought into position, and an artillery engagement ensued which lasted two hours, when the rebels retreated to Hills, beyond the town. We lost one killed and eight wounded. The rebel camp at Hills was captured. Hancock's troops entered Charlestown at 12 o'clock at night, the enemy leaving 100 wounded behind. At 4 o'clock we advanced and drove the enemy from Hills and dark occupied the position two miles behind the town. The rebel army occupies a position extending from Bunker Hill to the Shenandoah. Gen. McClellan arrived at Charlestown at 2 o'clock, remaining during the night.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 16.
The democratic majority in the state ticket will be from $500 to $600. The democratic elect five congressmen, union three, and three doubtful. Vanderburg county official democratic majority on state ticket, 324.

Law, democrat, for congress in the 1st district has 445 majority. Shelby county, official, 720 democratic majority. Posey county, democratic majority from 50 to 100.

Dubuque, Oct. 16.
The interior counties in northern Iowa have done nobly for the Union cause. Col. Allison (union) for congress has beaten Mahoney (tory) in the 34 district, about 4,000 majority, with the soldiers' vote.

Sao James, L. I., Oct. 16.
A and accident occurred here to-day, during a trial of the James projectile, in the presence of some French and Russian officers of artillery, and a considerable number of citizens. Owing to accident or carelessness, a shell exploded, killing Henry Beverland, of this village, and severely wounding C. T. James, S. P. Bryan, Capt. James Smith, and C. Berger, a French officer. Several others were also more or less wounded.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.
Innumerable unauthenticated reports are about this evening. Among them, that Humphrey Marshall with his whole force is retreating toward Irvine, Estell county, with Brig. Gen. R. J. Smith after him. Quite a number of rebels without arms arrived at Richmond last night, reporting that their forces had been thoroughly whipped. They say that Kirby Smith's force, in the morning of the 6th was drawn up in line of battle at Big Hill, eighteen miles southeast of Richmond. At Lexington heavy firing was heard all day, indicating the retreat of the rebels, and sharp pursuit by our forces. Rumors at Lexington are afloat that a detachment of our men had separated John Morgan's band into two bands, which were trying to concentrate and retreat in the direction of Gallatin. Crittenden's command is said to have captured 500 horses and 700 wagons on Tuesday from the rebels. Buell's main army passed through Crab Orchard at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and if unimpeded by skirmishers, must be near Rock Castle.

Gen. Bragg's force is supposed to be near London. Headquarters, so far as is advised, think Buell is pressing the enemy's rear sharply, and that the foregoing reports relate to skirmishes along the enemy's rear. Buell will force them to a fight or capture their whole army.

Thomas D. Caw, sheriff of Fayette Co., brings a report to Lexington of a heavy fight yesterday, from 8 a. m. till 11 p. m., between Lexington and Richmond, in which the rebels were utterly routed, they throwing away their arms and accoutrements by thousands. We captured 1,800 head of cattle, a large quantity of arms, and quite a number of prisoners.

The Milwaukee News says that the recent elections express the "voice of the people." It means the voice of the people who do not volunteer for the war.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.
The steamer Potomac, from New Orleans, reports the Roanoke arrived out. Our gunboats had captured 1500 head of cattle near Donaldsonville, and were conveying transports with them down the river when the rebel battery opened on them. The gunboats drove the rebels away, but not until 1st Lt. Swasey, of the Seito, was killed, and several wounded. The Potomac bro't $125,000 in specie.

A convention of railroad men yesterday adopted the following time table, to take effect Nov. 17th: Through trains leave New York for the west at 7 a. m. and 5 p. m.; leave Cincinnati for the east at 8.30 a. m. and 10.30 p. m.

PANAMA, Oct. 16th, (Midnight).
Herold's dispatch, London, advises from opposite Shepatown, report that the reconnoitering party under Gen. Humphreys, which crossed the Potomac this morning, were met near Shepatown by a rebel force, which opened on them an artillery fire. Our forces had no artillery with them and they retired across the river, having entirely accomplished the object of the reconnaissance, and ascertained that the rebels were still in some force at this point.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.
Special to Times.—President Lincoln's soon to be in Washington, preliminary to his assignment to an important command in the southwest.

The statement published nearly a week since that Gen. Morgan had been suspended from his command on account of his retreat from Cumberland Gap, is believed by the secretary of war to be untrue, as nothing of the kind is known at the department.

CHARLESTON, Va., Oct. 16.—3 P. M.
Lieut. A. W. Wheeler, with a large force, and Jackson at Bunker Hill with another large force. Stuart's cavalry is on the Shenandoah. A large rebel force is at Leesport, six miles away. Our forces are deployed out—Caldwell's brigade on the right front, the 6th New Hampshire on the left, the 6th regular cavalry on the extreme front of the village, and cavalry, infantry and artillery scattered through the village.

The 6th New York cavalry are two miles in the rear to prevent a flank movement. The enemy is expected to be reinforced. We learn from the people that Jeff. Davis has issued a proclamation that all Union officers held and captured shall be put to hard labor, if the Lincoln proclamation is carried out. There is a furious storm raging.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.
We have dispatches from the Times' special correspondent in front of Washington, dated Centerville and Green Springs. The rebel Gen. Stuart was certainly at Leesburg on Monday, our correspondent having been within sight of his camp fires. He attempted to out Capt. Ayres' detachment, but was foiled by information given by a negro, who had heard his master detail the rebel plan of operations. There is no doubt that Stuart is now in front of our advanced guard and threatening an attack. Gen. Stahl has advanced to meet him, and our correspondent is confident that Stuart will be compelled to fight or run. Stuart encamped, yesterday, between Bull Run Mountain and the Blue Ridge, and our pickets were driven in last night from the direction of Leesburg.

Lieut. Keokuk returned on Tuesday evening from a reconnaissance, and reports a force of 400 rebel cavalry at Bristow's Station, and that the rebels are running trains between Warrenton and Warrenton Junction. A small rebel force appeared yesterday on the stone bridge at the Bull Run battle ground.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.
Ohio election returns from 31 counties give a democratic majority of 17,530; a democratic gain of over 28,000.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

OMAHA, Oct. 16.
Hon. S. G. Daley, republican, re-elected delegate to congress by an increased majority.

DES MOINES, Oct. 16.
The following counties are heard from: Warren county, 122 republican majority; Polk, 500 ticket; Jackson, for congress, 900; Madison county, 40 democratic; Clark county, 100 republican; Jasper county, 300 without vote of soldiers, which it is supposed will increase it to 1000 republican majority.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 16.
Special to New York Herald.—Official dispatches were received here from Nashville, to-day. The rebels were in large force near that city. On the 11th they sent a flag of truce demanding the surrender of the town. Gen. Negley declined. The federal force was ample for the defense. Gen. Harris, Major General Anderson and Brigadier General Forest are in command of the rebels.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.
The French steam frigate Nassini, now at this port, brings refugees from Mexico to the 26th ult. Gen. Forrey arrived at Vera Cruz on the 22d. It is understood that in addition to his military command, the general is entrusted with diplomatic command superior to Salguero, who is suspected for being too much mixed in Mexican politics. No fighting had taken place, with the exception of a few guerrilla skirmishes.

A serious resistance to the federal made to the exiles for the draft among the Irish residents of Luzerne county, Pennsylvania, it was necessary, on Wednesday, to call out a militia force in the town of Blakeley, and fire upon the insurgents, four or five of whom were killed, and a forcible opposition put down.

Gen. Michael Corcoran has a card this morning, declining to be a candidate for congress. Gen. Corcoran will accept no office till the rebellion is put down. There came from a terrible calamity. School No. 20, South 4th street, Williamsburg, took fire from the heating apparatus. Great confusion prevailed. The children made a simultaneous and frantic attempt to escape from the apartment. Numbers rushed to the windows for the purpose of jumping out, which one or two actually did. The teachers directed their efforts to getting the children out, and succeeded. Nearly all escaped uninjured, but in the desperate attempt to get out, a number were trampled on and crushed, and more or less hurt. One boy, it is feared, will not recover. The fire was soon extinguished by the police and firemen, who also rendered active service in removing the children.

SAC HARBOR, Oct. 17.
Gen. C. T. James, the inventor of the James projectile, wounded yesterday by the explosion of a shell by carelessness, died here at 8 o'clock this morning. He was 58 years of age. His death cast a feeling of gloom over the entire community.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.

Pertinent Questions.

We find in the Beloit Journal the following questions addressed to the democratic candidate for senator in this county. The voters of the county, whose suffrages Mr. Waterman and the convention which nominated him solicit, would like an early and explicit answer: Beloit, Oct. 15, 1862.

S. S. Waterman, Esq.
Dear Sir:—I am informed by gentlemen who attended the democratic and union conventions held in Janesville yesterday, that you were nominated by those conventions as a candidate for state senator to represent this county for the next two years.

Your political opinions previous to the breaking out of the rebellion are matters of little moment, but your position at this time is one of vital importance.

The gentlemen composing the conventions which have placed you in nomination represent, as I understand, opinions wholly at variance with each other in relation to the present struggle to perpetuate and maintain our existence as a nation, and neither of those conventions have by resolution, address or otherwise, indicated any principles to which their nominees are pledged. I think it right that every voter within the county should be advised fully and freely as to the principles by which you would be governed should you be elected. Without further preface let me ask—

1. Are you in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war by the use of all the means under the control of the government not inconsistent with the rules of civilized warfare until the rebellion is suppressed and the supremacy of the government asserted and maintained throughout all the states and territories now in rebellion?

2. Are you in favor of the emancipation of the rebels, in case the same is necessary in order to suppress the rebellion?

3. In order to terminate the present war would you be in favor of giving further guarantees to slave property by amendment to the constitution of the United States?

4. Do you approve or disapprove of the principles set forth in the address issued by the Democratic convention recently held in the city of Milwaukee?

5. Do you approve or disapprove of the late order or message of the President of the United States in relation to the emancipation of slaves in the states and territories now in rebellion on and after the first day of January next? Yours very truly,

From the Wisconsin Times.
Letter from Col. Bragg, in response to Congress—He Defies His Position.

We have received the following letter from Col. Bragg, in response to a communication acquainting him with the action of the republican congressional convention:

My dear friend, I have received your letter of the 10th inst. and in reply to inform you that I have no objection to your using my name as a candidate for congress in the 4th congressional district, on the platform that "the government must be sustained."

The proceedings of the convention of which you were secretary show an earnest desire to merge all past differences in attaining the great end—the perpetuity of the government of our fathers.

How wisely you trusted your lance to my hands the future must determine. I would have kept aloof from the asperities all most always engendered in a contest for congress, but "to fight and be fought" are fast becoming daily occurrences in these perilous times of ours, and I have nearly educated myself to shrink from no responsibility in that direction.

I can take no part in the coming caucuses. My duties are elsewhere, and I shall endeavor to discharge them to my own credit, and to the honor of the state whose commission I bear. To the electors at home I leave the task of sustaining me, if my views and actions merit their approbation.

If elected, and my life is spared to enter upon the duties of my office, I shall give my best energies and intellect to the interests of my district and the government, which is now in fearful jeopardy.

It has been a matter of solicitude among my friends to know what my plans upon the great issues of the day are. I recognize but one issue, "For or against the government." This swallows up all others—and the motto that "he who is not for me is against me," never had more truthful significance than it has to-day.

Every controversy among ourselves, every withdrawal of confidence from the government, covertly or openly, encourages and gives "aid and comfort to the enemy." I am for the government—the iron gamester, and not the silk glove, for the enemy.

Thanking the body whom you have the honor to represent for its unqualified confidence, I leave the honor to be very Respectfully your obedient servant,

EDWARD S. BRAGG.

Return of Released Western Union Prisoners from the South.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.
About two hundred officers are here to-day from the south, the most of whom are western men, and were captured at Shiloh, Vicksburg and Gettysburg. They are being held mainly to the 12th, 13th and 14th Iowa regiments. They reached here in a ragged and dirty condition, but generally in good health. There have been a good many deaths among them from fevers and other causes. Several have been killed by the rebel guard. Among the latter was Lieut. Bliss, of 2d Michigan battery, who was shot by a sentry in pure wantonness, and without the slightest provocation.

Gen. Prentiss states that their treatment lately in Georgia was extremely brutal. One hundred and fifty were confined in close, small rooms, and their food was thrown in among them as if they had been so many hogs. While at Atlanta seven men were executed close to the prison of the national officers. At Tuscaloosa one of our men was shot in the head while looking out of a window, and fell into the street a corpse.

Capt. Lawyer, of the 18th Illinois, was placed in close confinement for two weeks, on bread and water, for simply answering a question addressed to him by one of his own men. The guard was ordered to shoot down any officer who might be seen speaking to one of his men.

One soldier died from absolute starvation while going from Tuscaloosa to Montgomery, and others only barely kept alive by eating the crumbs thrown on the lower deck from the cabin table. A great many died from sheer neglect. When appeals were made for medicine or attendance for the sick, the reply generally was that to neglect Yankees was the best way to get rid of them.

One of the guards at Madison had a purse and a razor strap, which he ostentatiously displayed as being from the master of a Yankee. Another had a new coat made from a federal jacket and another a case in which a bag inserted Yankee teeth.

The whole number will be paid off to-morrow, and will then leave for their respective homes. All of them express much indignation that they have not been exchanged before.

The returned prisoners state the fortifications around Richmond are of the most extensive and formidable character, and perfectly impregnable to assault.

Gov. Tod, of Ohio, always a straight democrat till the war broke out, made a speech at Columbus on Monday evening, in which he said of the president's proclamation: "I heartily endorse every word of it. It was well-timed for Ohio. The border was threatened. I professedly have firebrands threatened them to have our invaded. So long as slaves are allowed to remain at home, so long will rebellion last. Do you question its wisdom? Was not ninety days long enough for the rebel master to make up his mind to lay down his arms or lose his slaves? The blood of Ohio has been shed like water. It must be atoned for in the death of the leaders of this rebellion."

RECRUITS FOR COL. LYON.—We see posters up stating that 200 men are wanted to fill up the 13th regiment, Col. Lyon, now stationed at Fort Henry, Tennessee. No better regiment or colonel is in the field, and our boys who think of enlisting had better take up with the chance before drafting begins, and claim their $25 bounty in advance, $4 premium, as well as the bonus offered to volunteers by the county, all of which will be lost to drafted men.—Line Advocate.

Second Assembly District Convention.

A Republican Convention for the Second Assembly District, composed of the towns of Fulton, Harmony, Liberty, and Milton, will be held at Academy Hall, in the town of Milton, on MONDAY, THE 23RD INST.

At 2 o'clock P.M., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of the Assembly for said district. Also to transact such other business as may come before the convention.

An Appeal to the Benevolent.

The following is an extract from a letter received from the Rev. Mr. Beers, chaplain of the 3d Cavalry:

"Major Hanning makes a strong appeal in behalf of 3,000 Cherokee refugees, mostly women and children, who are at Fort Scott, without clothing or tents to cover them. They have no shelter of any kind. The cold rains are coming on, and they have to sleep in the open air on the ground. He says any kind of old clothes, old quilts, blankets or carpets would be of the greatest value to them. Government furnishes them rations, but no tents or clothing. Major H. says many of them are literally without clothing. The husbands and fathers of these women and children are in our army to the number of two thousand. Now, will not some persons of active benevolence in Janesville collect old clothes, blankets, quilts, carpets, etc., and forward them to me here and I will see that they are sent to Major Hanning. What would be so worn as to be useless to people at home would be invaluable to the unfortunates and paupers. I showed Major Hanning's letter to General Curtis, and he wrote a short appeal to the charity of the public. I shall get both parties and hope to get something here. If there is a prospect of doing something in Janesville write me."

Mr. O. J. Dearborn has kindly offered to pack and ship any articles left with him in answer to the above appeal.

A WELL-BESTOWED COMPLIMENT.

We learn that a complimentary supper has been tendered to and accepted by Capt. Ely, by a number of our citizens, and that it will be served at Woblescroft's saloon next Tuesday evening. The correspondence accompanying the tender was promised us for publication to-day, but it has not yet been furnished.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC WISCONSIN OFFICER.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial mentions the following incident in connection with the battle of Corinth:

"I met Mr. McLain, of the 8th Wisconsin, who was the most enthusiastic man on the field. Col. Lathrop told him to wait until he ordered him to fire. At last he got the word. McLain threw away his hat. He began to get warm, then threw away his coat. Finally he pulled off his shirt, and at every shot that told he should like a wild man. He is greatly praised for his skill and courage. He is a Scotchman."

We have not heard that our "Archy" has been transferred to the 11th regiment, but if he was in that fight, we will bet a nickel cent that he was the man.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

The Monitor endeavors to create dissatisfaction with Mr. Bennett, the republican candidate for district attorney, because he sooted the nomination of George A. Young two or three years ago, and indirectly appeals to 'straight republicans' to vote for Mr. Winans, his opponent. How much will "straight" republicans gain by voting for Mr. Winans, who declared in the democratic county convention that he hated republicans, (or the republican party, as some of his friends claim he said,) like rattlesnakes, but was willing to affiliate with them for the purpose of breaking up their organization! No really loyal man will hesitate which to adopt, the sentiments of Mr. Bennett or the sentiments of Mr. Winans in relation to the rebellion and the manner of expressing it.

The "democracy" have nominated J. A. Blount of the town of Janesville and Henry J. Wilkinson of Idema as candidates for the assembly.

A COMPREHENSIVE PLATFORM.

A convention has been called of "all those opposed to the candidate of the republican party for assemblyman in this district," to meet to-morrow to nominate a candidate in opposition to him. This is about as comprehensive a platform as "the democracy" are adopting in all places where they have the disposition but lack the courage to avow the Ryan address. So the opposition to Mr. Bates is to be personal as well as political. If this is to be the game, let his opponent take the consequences of the policy his friends have inaugurated.

Lost.—On the 14th inst., a lady's gold watch, medium size, with double cases and carving upon the same. The finder, upon leaving said watch at this office, will be liberally rewarded.

Do you hear of any republican union conventions here. Republicans are only wanted to elect democrats down this way.—"Heads I win, tails you lose."

It is rumored that a challenge has passed between Geo. McKinstry and Frank P. Blair.

On the 14th inst., the congressional delegation probably stands fourteen democrats and five union.

The Chicago Times says the present high price of gold is the verdict of the capitalists of a want of confidence in the government. We always supposed the price of government stocks was the criterion, and we see they are quoted at 105.

"UNION" CONVENTION IN EMERALD GROVE.

We publish among our advertisements the proceedings of a "union" convention in Emerald Grove, for two reasons. First, they are ordered into our daily three days, and money accompanied the order. Second, we do not recognize any more claim for a gratuitous use of our columns from such a convention, under the present aspect of the "union" movement in this county, than from any other convention of our opponents. We might or might not comply with a request to publish gratuitously the proceedings of a body of political opponents. The circumstances attending the meeting would decide the character of our answer. At this time, those democratic "unionists" and the few republican workers with them, have an organ of their own in this county, and we should suppress no intelligence by refusing to give a free use of our columns to them. We might, with as much propriety, be asked to print for nothing the tickets to be voted for the benefit of a political intriguer or a disappointed office seeker.

As to the convention itself, it was, upon the face of it, a slim gathering of democrats, and the friends and relatives of the ambitious candidate. We do not know the political character of Mr. Wooster, the candidate, and it is not necessary that we should know it to assign him his proper position. If he is a republican, his nomination is unnecessary and disorganizing, as the republicans of that district have an unexceptionable and true candidate in Mr. Fowler. If he is a democrat, he is sailing under false colors, and the people of that district don't want him in the legislature at any time, and especially now when the government is to be supported in its measures to repress the rebellion, and a United States senator is to be elected.

The Chicago Times, referring to the election in Iowa says that "the vote of the soldiers, so far as heard from, is reported all one way, as was to have been expected."

Why "expected," when you have been saying all the time that republicans or abolitionists would not enlist, and that the fighting was being done by the democrats?
